

Trial Started In Reno For Suspect In Tahoe Slaying

Witnesses Testify They Saw Victim, Donnelly Together at Lake

Taking testimony in the murder trial of Mark J. Donnelly, 30, accused of the brutal slaying of Walter Hemple, veteran Lake Tahoe realtor last June 17 near Kings Beach, began yesterday. The trial is being heard in Reno before an all-male jury.

Donnelly was arrested in Texas shortly after the body of Hemple was found slumped in the front seat of his car on an isolated road, a bullet hole through his head and strangled with his own necktie. Witnesses said they saw the two men together at Cal-Neva shortly before the murder.

The most damaging testimony thus far permitted in the trial was that of William Taylor, Reno hotel clerk, who testified that following the death of Hemple, Donnelly told him: "I tried to hold up a man and had to kill him....There was blood all over the place." Taylor's testimony was morbid in the extreme.

Mrs. Mabel Reese, a waitress at Cal-Neva, testified that she saw the two men together shortly before the killing. Other Tahoe witnesses were Albert McEathran, a carpenter of Kings Beach, and Mrs. Bessie Wheatly, both of whom identified Donnelly as the man they saw leaving the resort with Hemple the night of the murder.

Mrs. Wheatly said that the two stopped at her table on the way out and Hemple said he was going to show a lot to Donnelly. She was associated with Hemple in the real estate business and the afternoon before had given him $50 from a former transaction. It is believed that robbery was the motive for the murder.

Donnelly's wife is one of the spectators at the trial being held before Judge William McKnight.

Mrs. Muriel Frey, chairman for the Parent and Teachers dinner and a carnival to be held at Capitol Hall, this week announced the date has again been changed and the two events will be held on November 5.

Mrs. N. F. Dolley has donated a floral arrangement. The gifts will be on display in the Truckee Mercantile and the jewelry store windows. Several merchants have volunteered to sell tickets for the eventful evening.

Proceeds of the evening will go to swell the coffers of the organization which buys books and gives awards to classes and individual children or any worthy project upon which they may decide during the year.

Because of the conflicting date for the installation of officers for the Wyethia Club on November 18 the date was moved up to November 5.

Work Is Started Preparing Site For New School

Nevada Firm's Bid Low On Contract Award for Work on Site

Work was scheduled to start this week on leveling and grading the site for the new high school at Meadow Park.

Members of the governing board met last Thursday at Tahoe City where they opened a total of 13 bids which had been submitted for the project, Everett V. O'Rourke, district superintendent, announced. The bids ranged from the accepted one of $16,000 from the Nevada Constructors of Reno, Nevada, to more than $58,000 by a bay area firm.

The board does not expect to start actual construction of the buildings until next year but were anxious to progress as far as possible on the preliminary work so that when weather permits, construction can start and the plant be ready for occupancy by the opening of the fall semester.

The Sierra Pacific Power Company which has a pole line directly through the plant site, has agreed to move the line south so that it will be entirely off the property.

Fence Complete
In the meantime the long needed fence at the Truckee elementary school has been installed and is serving its purpose by keeping the younger children from running into Church St. The project had been delayed pending completion of surveys necessary to define the school property.

BLAZE REMINDS RESIDENTS OF DANGER OF FIRE

A one-acre forest fire reminds residents of the Tahoe-Truckee area today that the fire season is not yet passed. Discovered at 1 p.m. Wednesday two and a half miles west of the Nevada State line on Highway 40, the fire was promptly reported by V. T. Tossaint of the Reno fire department, who was driving by. The message, after relay through the checking station, via Elmer Hanson, was received by C. Swanson, fire control officer.

At 4:30, the fire was burning over an area of about one acre of aspen and young Jeffrey pine, and presented little danger of getting away. With Swanson was C. A. Stowell, fire control officer of the Toiyabe National Forest.

The fire was believed to have started near the railroad track, winds carrying it across the Truckee River and to the road.

Residents are advised by the forest service to maintain their vigilance in fire prevention, especially at this late season when many of the fire lookout stations have been deactivated in the area.

Only recently the entire coffee shop was remodeled and redecorated to keep pace with community development and the managers, Reg Smart and Ernest DeLisle are justly proud of the improvements.

A state law provides that all vehicles either meeting or passing a stopped school bus must stop to be sure there is no danger of striking a child. While the law is plain, there are apparently only a few drivers who understand the importance of the ruling as many continue to speed by a stopped bus, particularly in the less populated areas. A child is usually thoughtless and will dash across the street or highway after alighting from the bus instinctively trusting that he will not be struck. Drivers of buses caution the children and the law provides for their safety but still violations occur. We can only urge that all vehicles come to a stop where children's lives are at stake.

During the recent storm on the summit, roadside chain "bandits" started operating and chains were sold for twice and three times their market value. Costs for installing and removing chains were sky high. This procedure is one of the reasons that winter traffic through this route is cut to a minimum and legitimate chain dealers, service stations and garages suffer more than anyone else because of the practice of a few itinerant "chain operators". We believe some kind of action should be taken to stop the practice as all businesses along the route are vitally effected.

DAVIS IS GUILTY JURORS DECIDE; ASKS NEW TRIAL

Phil Davis, Oakland automobile dealer convicted of negligence and of responsibility in the Imogene Wittsche Lake Tahoe tragedy, will be sentenced after a probation hearing November 17.

A federal court jury of eight men and four women found him guilty Monday in Sacramento after one hour and two minutes of deliberation. Davis was accused after the 14 year old Roseville girl was struck by a speedboat while swimming in Lake Tahoe. The accident necessitated the amputation of both her legs below the knees.

Federal Judge Dal Lemmon thanked the jurors for "an honest verdict." The maximum sentence would be a year in prison and a $2,000 fine.

Davis' attorney has announced that he will seek a new trial.

The jury took only two ballots, there never being a question but that Davis was the driver of the boat, members of the jury said. Davis denied that he was near Imogene and her company when the accident occurred.

Board to Receive Bids For $150,000 Issue On Nov. 23

Sealed bids for the purchase of $150,000 worth of Tahoe Forest Hospital District bonds will be received by the governing board at the district office in Truckee on Wednesday, November 23, for the purpose of erecting and maintaining a general hospital. The bonds will be sold December 15, 1949.

This was included in a resolution passed by the board, headed by President C. R. Heller, here last night. The 150 bonds will be in $1000 denominations, all dated December 15, 1949 and will retire at the rate of ten each year.

The meeting last night was devoted to a study of tentative plans prepared by Architect George Sellon of Sacramento who has been retained by the district for construction of the unit.

A complete new plan will be submitted but will be along the same line as first proposed. The building will face Highway 40 and the east and south portions will contain the 12 rooms. The site has been approved and as soon as the finished plans are prepared and approved by the state and federal agencies, work can be started.

CHINESE SUICIDE BURIED TUESDAY, WROTE INTENTION

Graveside services were conducted Tuesday at the Truckee cemetery under the direction of the Truckee Colonial Mortuary for Seng Chan, alias C. T. Chee, 37, Boston, Mass., who, Constable N. F. Dolley said, ended his life by shooting himself here last Thursday morning.

Identification of the Chinese was established when Dolley received a telegram from Herman Wong in Boston which read as follows:

I received a letter from my friend Mr. Seng Chang at Truckee stating he intended to commit suicide. Please do your best to keep this from happening.

The telegram arrived three days after the finding of Chan's body, Dolley said. The local officer immediately wired Wong for further information but received only a brief message asking that Chan be buried here. The telegram gave no reason for the suicide but did say that the dead man had no relatives in this country.

Hunt For Tatum Locally Following Bold Jail Break

Father, Proud of Escapee, Reposes in Cell of Minden Jail

Reports that a car answering the description of one driven by Jack Tatum, widely known throughout the Lake Tahoe area in Nevada as a desperado, who escaped from a Phoenix, Arizona, jail last week during a break which cost two lives, was seen heading west early Tuesday morning has local officers on guard.

The car was described as having been seen in Sparks Monday night in Tatum's possession, was seen by a truck driver traveling at a high rate of speed east of the quarantine station about five o'clock Tuesday morning. The clerk at the station did not see the vehicle, but alerted officers and road blocks were set up near the intersection of Highways 40 and 20 west of here.

The Tatum car was not seen in that vicinity although Sheriff R. W. Hoskins quickly organized a searching party to scour the area.

It is possible, Constable N. F. Dolley said, that the car left the main highway before reaching the quarantine station and using forest roads familiar to the driver, the suspect may have bypassed the station. Familiar haunts at Tahoe are being watched as well as hideouts in the Marysville district where Tatum formerly lived.

The suspect is wanted at Minden for burglaries at Lake Tahoe, a crime for which his father, Sam Tatum, is now being held in the Minden jail. The elder Tatum expressed pride in his son for being able to break from the Phoenix jail which he described as a "rough proposition" since he was once in the place himself.

The Tatum brothers, Frank and Jack, were arrested in Reno in August in connection with the Tahoe burglaries. On August 13, Jack sawed his way out of jail at Minden and two days later Frank escaped the same way, only to be captured the same night. He was returned to San Quentin as a parole violator.

Jack was arrested in Phoenix a month later and last week figured in the sensational jail break in which two prisoners were killed and two others wounded in a running gun battle.

The Tatum gang once terrorized the southwest but more recently moved into Nevada, officers said.

The Women's Society of Christ-ian Service will feature a home cooked supper when they hold their annual pre-Christmas bazaar in the Veterans Memorial Hall on the evening of November 11. They will begin serving the special spaghetti dish at 6 p.m. to the public for a small sum.

At the same time hand made articles will be on display to be sold for the benefit of the Community Church fund.

'Batten Down' Movables Warns Constable Dolley

Constable N. F. Dolley this week issued a warning to householders to remember that Halloween is fast approaching and suggests that they remove all garbage cans to a safe place and otherwise protect their property from the "ghosts" who will walk over the weekend.

With a party sponsored by the Rotary Club and several house parties scheduled, it is unlikely, Dolley said, that any great damage will be caused but loose gates, old cars and particularly garbage cans are a temptation and should be removed.

Birthday parties are not rare but a birthday party for six is an occasion worthy of mention. At the Mont Blanc last Saturday scores of friends gathered for the celebration of birthdates for the following: Karl Bohme, Bill Dugan, Toby Watters, Johnny Clayson, Lynn Solomon and Glen Bailey. Each honoree was presented with gifts. There were pictures (supposedly their own) of each of them in their very early years. Roud never recognize those dimpled darlings now. Everyone had a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Free have closed their cottages, The Dunes, and left early this week for Los Vegas where they expect to spend some time before going on to Phoenix. Tex and Peg Jones are gone for the winter too.

Her EYES are taking it easy, too with a BETTER SIGHT LAMP

It is easier to study when there's enough elbow room for comfort. A student needs plenty of desk space to spread out books and papers. But elbow room is not enough. The eyes must take it easy too. There are "Better Sight Lamps" made for just this situation. One is the swing-out, swivel-arm lamp that takes up no desk space and can be pulled up to shed light over the left shoulder. Or there is the tall standard student desk lamp with diffusing bowl that gives a wide spread of soft light. Now with school and college about to begin, the wise parent will see to it that good light is a part of the back-to-school equipment. Remember good light is cheap and sight is priceless.

42 Precincts in County For Nov. 8 Voting

SACRAMENTO —(W.N.S.)— Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan reports that 4,568,477 persons are eligible to vote at the November 8 special election.

In Nevada County, 9,730 persons are eligible to vote, according to Jordan's announcement, in 42 precincts. Placer County tallies 16,957 qualified to cast ballots in 73 precincts.

The secretary of state said the statewide total is 493,550 less than were eligible for the presidential election in 1948, owing largely to a purge of the rolls by county clerks, which dropped over 850,000 persons from the lists.

Following the purge, he said that 350,000 persons were added to the election rolls.

The number of precincts in the state—14,203—is 2,599 less than last year but consolidation resulted in the fewer number of polling places for the special election.

California Is Hit Hard By Polio Epidemic

SACRAMENTO —(W.N.S.)— California experienced the most extensive and severe epidemic of poliomyelitis in its history between January, 1948, and April, 1949, the state department of health reported this week. During that period, 4,473 cases of polio were reported to the department, and 387 deaths from the disease were recorded.

Of this total, Nevada County had four cases and one death, according to the department's records.

The rate of polio cases reported still is more than 100 each week, according to department reports, with 117 cases being reported last week. In a roundup of statistics on the epidemic, the department said that only six sparsely populated counties escaped.

The needy aged, the blind, the working public—desperately need PROTECTION from PENSION POLITICIANS! PROPOSITION 2 guarantees that protection!

Today, in the shadow of the Capitol dome in Sacramento, there's a pension government-within-a-government—a virtual dictatorship with $200,000,000 of public funds at its command! It operates beyond any effective control by the Legislature, the Governor, or the People!

END THE DICTATORSHIP!

The head of this "Huey Long" set-up, the State Director of Social Welfare, is a former officer of the pressure organization that promoted the McLain Pension Scheme—the fantastic, trickily-worded measure enacted last year by a narrow margin. The Director got the job because her name appeared in the act's fine-print!

In effect, the Director is judge and jury over the welfare of pensioners. Aid for the aged and blind is in a sorry state today!

Lives there a man with soul so dead who never to himself has said, "Boy, if I could only make a name for myself on the football field!" One man did, and if proof is needed read then this story of the hamburger-fryer from Rahway, New Jersey.

Before you ask, "What has a hamburger-fryer to do with a football story?" listen then to the tale of Tigertown. That's right, Tigertown, which appears in your postal guide as Princeton, New Jersey, but which is, in reality, the lair of the Princeton Tigers.

It was in 1935, in November of that year. Princeton was playing Dartmouth on a blustery afternoon and Saturday's children were huddled in the wind-punished stand. The partisans of Princeton were happy that day, for all afternoon the Tigers had kicked the daylight out of the Indians from Dartmouth. It was a relentless onslaught and a massacre in reverse. The Indians were being scalped. Not even in the fourth quarter, in the fading moments of play, did the Tigers relent.

They had the ball on the two-yard line and were fighting to smash over for another score. Then, quietly, a man slipped out of the stands, rushed through the slush on the field and unsighted by the officials, took a fighting position alongside the Dartmouth stalwarts in the Indians' line. When Princeton tried to smash through for another score he stopped the Tigers in their tracks.

They pulled the pile of men apart and, on the bottom of the pack, they found the man in civilian clothes. He was muddled and bloodied, but unbowed. "We stopped them," he cried. "We showed them how to do it."

They led him off the field, this twelfth man of Dartmouth, and the 56,000 customers in the stands cheered him to the leaden sky, for in the game the little man who had come out to help the Indians in their hour of darkest peril each spectator saw himself. This was a man who, like Walter Mitty, had dreamed of achieving greatness and had gone out to grasp the golden chance when it presented itself.

The sports writers rushed out to interview this "12th man", but he was nowhere to be found when the game was over. Several days later, however, a hamburger-fryer in Rahway, New Jersey, came forth and declared he was the "12th man."

"I always hated the Princeton team," he explained, "and when I saw them beating Dartmouth, I had to do something." A few days later, the Dartmouth alumni invited him to be their guest at a game in Hanover, New Hampshire, but on the very afternoon of the game, the real "12th man" came forward. He, it turned out, was a Princeton alumni who had, in a drunken stupor, come out to help the Tigers and had instead blundered into the enemy lines.

It mattered little, however, for a man had become a hero to himself by going out to play in a game of football when all the odds were against him. Yes, as we said in the beginning, "Lives there a man with soul so dead who never to himself has said, 'Boy, if I could only make a name for myself on the football field?'"

New Township Studied For Crystal Bay Area of Lake Tahoe

RENO— Feasibility of establishing a new township in the Crystal Bay area on the Nevada side of Lake Tahoe is being investigated by the Washoe County board of commissioners who have instructed District Attorney H. O. Taber to study and report on the legal aspects of the move.

Principal advantages of township organization would be the furnishing of more adequate police and fire protection. Crystal Bay is now in Reno township and has no constable or justice court of its own.

The sheriff's office has a full-time deputy, Bill Beers, at Crystal Bay the year around and supplies an additional deputy during the summer months.

As a township, Crystal Bay still would require personnel from the sheriff's office but would also have its own justice of the peace and constable, enabling it to take care of minor law violations without the long trip to justice court in Reno.

The new township could levy taxes for fire protection as well as law enforcement and would have a measure of self-government.

Property owners of Crystal Bay are expected to give strong support to the proposal. They long have insisted their community has outgrown the status of an "outpost."

There are comparatively few year around residents at Crystal Bay but summer population is said to exceed that of three of the five existing townships in Washoe County. Townships now include Reno, Sparks, Wadsworth, Gerlach and Verdi.

The matter of boundaries for the new township has not been settled. It has been suggested that Reno township be cut off at the Mt. Rose summit and that everything south of that line now in Reno township be included in the new subdivision.

Summit Scene

by FRAN COUILLARD
The Donner Community Club held its regular meeting last Thursday evening and a nominating committee was appointed by President Glen Parsons for the purpose of selecting new officers for the ensuing year. The committee consisting of Ernie Nordstrum, Max Williamson and Jack Crampton has the task of selecting a new president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and ways and means committee. Yours truly was made chairman of the Christmas party that is given annually by the club for the children of the Donner Trail Elementary School. Madyon Walton, Pat Bowman and Margot Nordstrum are on the committee.

Speaking of parties, Donner Summit Lodge is sending out invitations for their 8th annual Hal-low-e'en party. Hear of treasure hunts and soft pie eating contests, apple dunking and the usual works and to be put on in the inevitable way that Donner Summit Lodge can do it. Everybody wears jeans to this wing ding—even the kids. The first part of the evening entertainment is turned over to the young ones and after they are bedded down the oldsters take over. We have missed but one of these parties in the eight years and have never failed to be awfully surprised when the witching hour of closing was upon us.

Already applications are coming in for next year's Donner Trail cross country ski race which was revived last winter. In line with this we met Bill Callio and Stig Bentger at Ice Lakes last Sunday afternoon. Both are getting in trim for the race, Stig vowing he'll win this year. Stig, who recently left the employ of the Swedish consul in San Francisco as he is taking out his American citizenship, is working at the Ice Lakes Chalet as he prepares for the race. Speaking of the race reminds us of Cam Rounage, the "father" of the Donner Trail race. Cam dropped in to see us a few days ago and announced that his Sitski Lodge at Cisco Grove has been taken over by Tom Vicencio. Tom, an old mountaineer who knows the ski business from A to Z, is most anxious for the first snows to fall so that he can get on with his business. We are glad to have Tom back in our midst again and even tho' Cam has announced retirement, he is going to take care of his baby just the same—the Donner Trail Memorial cross country race.

Recently a meeting of the Winter Sports Committee was held at the Soda Springs Hotel at which time yours truly resigned as secretary. Reason? Too busy to give it the full amount of time it so justly deserves. We loved our job on this committee and hated to give it up but as the winter shapes up ahead now, we don't see how we can do it. Our one baby, the Central Reservation Bureau, already functioning, should be taken up immediately.

We think. We proudly announce that 3,000 reservations were placed with the bureau last winter and accommodations found for that many in the area bounded by Emigrant Gap on one end and Truckee on the other. We hear of a gigantic winter sports committee being formed which will include this area, the Tahoe area, the Highway 50 area and western Nevada. Bud Horak, Kay Jansen and Gordon Hooley attended the embryonic meeting for the amalgamation in Reno recently. Invitations will be sent to all operators of ski tows and hotels for a big meeting some time in the first part of November where the deal will be talked over at greater length and action taken. One of the most important phases of the deal, say those who attended, will be the setting up of a calendar so that events in all areas will not have conflicting dates.

And speaking of events, Mrs. A. E. Mason stopped in and visited us a short time back relative to the Truckee Dog Derby. The lady who had the beautiful Samoyede dog teams last winter that came in with flying colors was just returning from the Reno Dog Show and had a couple of her prize winning dogs in the car with her. She is most anxious that the area "get on the ball" earlier this year and that the sale of tickets be started earlier than last season. "In order to get out the proper publicity," she stated, "and get well known dog team racers to come to our show we have to start now."

Roy and Jess Thompson of The Cedars are getting ready to hole in for the winter again after a tremendous summer season. See the supplies being packed into their back country home nine miles off the highway so that they can live through the winter in their isolation.

Elmo Moriano has ordered and received his lawn seed so we expect the start of Beacon Hill Park very shortly. Hear that he might consider turning that concrete and rock bound excavation into an ice skating ring this winter. Elmo states that he is really giving this a great deal of thought.

Ice Lakes has new equipment which insures steady and regular transportation into the chalet this winter. With this last snow fall

Tahoe Letter

FROM SWANEE

Tahoe City, October 24th
Dear Tahoeites—

This will be the last letter I will be writing from Lake Tahoe for some time to come. For on October 27 I will leave for daughter Marie's home in Reno, remain overnight and the next midnight hop the streamliner for Chicago. From there I go to Mt. Vernon, about 275 miles south of Chicago, and plan to visit for two and possibly three months at the home of my middle daughter, Phyllis (Mrs. Charles Hall) who is about to present the family with one, and maybe two, additional heirs around November 7. Her doctor has not quite made up his mind as to how many there will be. I have not seen this daughter and family for four years or more and have never seen my little three-year-old granddaughter, Barbara, so am looking forward to the trip with keen anticipation. And in addition to this, I am one of those Native Daughters and have never been out of the state of California any further than Gardnerville, Nevada, so expect to fully enjoy this coming journey.

While I am away I have secured the services of Bob Gilbert, teacher of the 4th and 5th grades at Tahoe Lake School, who will report the news while I am gone. He is a very personable young man who graduated from University of California at Berkeley as a forester. He attended the University of Hawaii for one year, as did his charming wife, who is still in the "bride" class, since they were married only last spring in Visalia. His missus graduated from UC at Berkeley last spring, having majored in psychology. Bob is planning on joining Tahoe's American Legion Post, having done his stint in the last war as a paratrooper, spending much of his period of service in Japan where he also did some forestry work for the army. The Gilberts are occupying the George Bliss home in the Bittencourt Tract and are looking forward with real anticipation to a good old fashioned Tahoe winter. For our Tahoe subscribers we invite you to call Bob with your news at Tahoe City 81.

Had a call from Dave Chambers at Chambers' Lodge today who is champing at the bit, anxious to be off to Hotel Samarkand at Santa Barbara, where he and Mrs. Chambers enjoy the winters at their southern California resort. Dave is about worn out with the ordeal of having housed, fed and accommodated the more than 150 crew members of the Paramount Studios, all of whom have left town home with the exception of two men and they will soon be gone. Dave and his helpers, who included Mr. and Mrs. Verne Daniels and Mrs. Hank Slade, were up at the crack of dawn preparing for five o'clock breakfast and putting up lunches. During the last days of shooting of the re-take of The American Tragedy, starring Elizabeth Taylor and Montgomery Clift, and featuring Shelley Winters, a real problem arose when the metal boat used in the drowning scene on Cascade Lake refused to turn over as called for in the script. Dave declares the boat was made more than 15 years ago by E. H. Pomini and air tanks installed to keep the boat from sinking positively would not permit the boat to be tipped over. Air compressors had to be used to accomplish the wanted effect. Chambers estimated the Paramount people expended in the neighborhood of $150,000 in filming scenes at Lake Tahoe.

The grand turkey dinner held on Saturday evening by members of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club in honor of Terry Tollefson in Tahoe Community Hall in Tahoe City was a huge success. Approximately 68 persons attended to enjoy the tasty repast and remain for the movies furnished by the John Flaggs. Denis Sach, accompanied by Mrs. Evie Waters, gave several vocal solos which were well received. Mrs. Waters recounted briefly how the entire town had turned out for the special service held in the hall some months ago when Terry's very life hung in the balance. Herman Rauh had conducted the prayer service for Terry and their supplications were not in vain. Gerry Waters, club president, turned over $325, the proceeds from the dinner, to Terry as a gift of friendship and appreciation for the brave fight he has made since his tragic injury at Sun Valley. Many eyes were moist as the presentation was made but the situation took a lighter turn as Realtor Fred Kilner called over to Terry to "Take care of that money now, and don't let your father sell you a lot somewhere." Terry asked me before I left if I would extend his most sincere thanks to all who participated in making the affair so pleasantly successful. He and his family were deeply touched and grateful.

Tahoe Park lost two more summer residents with the departure on Monday of Mrs. Clarence Beavers and little son Chris who will spend the winter at the San Bruno home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sigvard Ronning, while her husband goes out to pursue his favorite avocation, trapping. One of Tahoe's most beautiful babies, little Chris is just eight months old and almost 25 pounds already. Beavers, who has been a professional trapper all his life, built for himself in two days one of the most compact, attractive and comfortable trailers I have ever seen. He will take it with him and use it as his headquarters during the winter. Beavers, fire control officer for the Forest Service at Tahoe Park camp, will remain on duty here for at least another month, according to present plans. He expressed real pleasure at the interest shown by local residents in fire control and suppression and in seeing that neighbors observed the letter of the fire laws. He extends sincere

Schools of District Plan Field Day on Friday At Kings Beach School

TAHOE CITY—The four elementary schools of the Tahoe-Truckee Unified School District will meet Friday of this week for an all-day field meet at the Kings Beach School. The intermediate and upper grades, after forming for classes at their respective schools will be transported to the Kings Beach School by the regular school buses. Primary grades will not participate. Return home will be by buses also.

Plans for this play day were initiated and developed in the meetings of the four principals—Mrs. P. J. Gallinger, Tahoe Lake School; Miss Pat Bowman, Donner Trail School; James Welch, Truckee Elementary School, and Charles Chubb, Kings Beach School.

In addition to individual participation, teams will be formed from the mixed ranks of the four schools. Events scheduled for the morning are basketball, baseball, volleyball, dodgeball and three-deep. Afternoon events include throws for accuracy and distance of softballs, footballs and basketballs; relay, sack and three-legged races; volleyball ring toss and folk dancing.

Noon-time meals will be brought by the children from their own schools or from home. Hot chocolate will be served by the Kings Beach PTA. Group singing will follow the lunch.

In addition to the school staffs, Everett O'Rourke, district superintendent of schools; Miss Miriam Gunter, instruction supervisor for the district's elementary schools, and others will supervise the activities in which 170 pupils will participate.

The public is invited to attend.

cere thanks to all for their friendly cooperation.

Duck season opened here on October 21 at noon but the ducks that had been seen swimming the day before on the Truckee River right near the dam in town, 19 strong, had departed for other areas. Few ducks appear to be here now although they were frequently seen on the river and shore line prior to opening date.

Guess I will ring off for this time and for some time. This will be my last letter from Lake Tahoe for some time but you may be hearing from me from Illinois. Here's wishing you all good health, good cheer and good luck and I'll be seeing you by and by. As ever, Swanee.

Legionnaires Talk Over Third Annual Shoot

TAHOE CITY—American Legion Post 718 met at the community center, Tahoe City, Monday night. Principal business discussed centered about the Third Annual Turkey Shoot to be conducted by the post. The shoot will be held at the Tahoe City Golf Course November 13. Turkeys will be presented to the high scorers in each of three main events. The events will be pistol, men's rifle and .22 calibre rifle for women and children under 14.

Early procurement of ample birds and the lessons gained from the last two shoots are expected to result in an even smoother performance than last year's. The meet is open to the public.

Commander Al Randolph concluded the meeting at 9:30 and the members were then treated to four first-rate movie shorts—"Spike Jones", "The 3 Suns", "Bird Dogs" and "Sun Valley Ski Sports". Procured by Al Henry, with the post's thanks, from John Flagg of Tahoe City, the pictures were enthusiastically received. It is planned that other pictures be presented at future meetings, held every other Monday night.

Placer County Pooches Will Need Licenses

TAHOE CITY—On November 17 the newly approved Placer County pound ordinance will go into effect. In addition to establishing the office of county pound master, this ordinance makes mandatory the registration and licensing of dogs outside the incorporated cities within Placer County. Dogs not licensed may be impounded and violation of the ordinance is punishable as a misdemeanor.

The licenses will be issued from the office of County Clerk Lillian Rechenmacher in Auburn between November 15 and January 1. The fee will be $2. A charge of $7 will be made for those not obtaining licenses by January 1.

Dog kennels, where five or more dogs are kept for breeding purposes, must pay a license fee of $10.

The ordinance makes it a misdemeanor to permit a dog to stray from the owner's premises or upon the lands of anyone else without permission.

E. L. Oliver, who has been summing at Lett's Stay, Lake Tahoe has returned to Piedmont, Calif.

State Forester Gives Rules Governing Holiday Tree Cutting

State Forester DeWitt Nelson in Sacramento emphasizes that forest officers in California are again on the lookout for violators of laws governing the cutting of Christmas trees and decorative greenery for commercial and private use.

Nelson calls attention to the state law that requires every individual who cuts Christmas trees, or other forest products, on forest lands in California for commercial purposes to register as a timber operator with the State Forester, State Office Building No. 1, Sacramento 14. The registration fee is set by law at $1 per year.

"On privately owned lands," the forester said, "the cutting of trees must be done in accordance with the Forest Practice Rules, or if on Federal or State-owned land, under the terms of the sale contract." The local forestry official can supply a copy of the Forest Practice Rules.

State law requires every person who cuts or removes Christmas trees or holiday greenery growing upon land not his own to obtain permission from the owner of the land on which the trees or greenery are cut. The law also says that any person who knowingly sells, offers or exposes for sale, or transports for sale Christmas trees or holiday greenery cut from land not owned by the person who did the cutting or removing without a signed written permit from the owner of the land is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Nelson indicated that many people are of the opinion that the state owns a large part of the forest land in California. "This is not the case," Nelson said. "The state owns and manages only 70,000 acres, less than one-half of one per cent of the commercial forest land in the state." About one-half of the area that produces Christmas trees in California is federally owned and administered by the U.S. Forest Service, Nelson said, the rest being in private ownership.

The state forester stated that past records show an average cut of 500,000 Christmas trees annually in California, while there are imported into California from the northwest and elsewhere over two million Christmas trees each year. Studies conducted by the division of forestry indicate that some 15 per cent of these trees remain unsold at the end of the buying season.

Average Aid to Aged Is Up 25 Per Cent
People receiving aid as needy aged in Nevada County received an average of $554.64 for the first eight months of 1949, 25 per cent more than the $442.20 average aid per person paid during the first eight months of 1948, California Taxpayers' Association reported this week.

Total aid paid to the needy aged in this county for the first eight months of 1949 reached $424,612. 55 per cent more than the $273,671 total payments for January through August of 1948. In Placer County, average aid per person rose 26 per cent from $454.60 to $571.52 in the periods covered and total aid was up 55 per cent—$357,489 to $552,775.

Tahoe, Summit Polls Are Designated For Placer County

AUBURN—The board of supervisors of Placer County have set up two precincts at Lake Tahoe and two in the Donner Summit area for the November 8 special state election on 12 proposed amendments to the state constitution.

At Tahoe City, the polling place will be in the community center. Serving on the board, according to the county clerk, will be Mesdames Louise Geier, Ida Simmonds, Eleanor Swanson and Corrine Otton.

In the Brockway precinct, the Kings Beach School is the voting place and election officers are Mesdames Alice Sorensen, Helen Walters, Dorothy O'Brien and Florence Miles.

Kiski Lodge is the polling place for voters in Summit precinct. On this board are Mesdames Lola Schull, Goldie Rowton, Jessie Mae Thompson and Elsie Olson.

Cisco Grove will be the polling place in Cisco precinct with Mesdames Ethel Crampton, Katherine Hammond, Lydia Crampton and Maude Bartosh on the board.

All polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

On the ballot are the following: Proposition 1 proposes a statewide school bond issue of $250,000,000 to aid impoverished school districts. No. 2 provides for revision of the present set-up on aid to the needy aged and blind. Proposition 3 would raise the pay of the state legislators from $100 to $300 a month and regulate sessions of the legislature. No. 12 would impose summer daylight saving time in the state.

Propositions 4 through 10 would repeal obsolete and inoperative portions of the constitution. No. 11 was proposed with the same end in view but faulty drawing of the proposition has made its approval undesirable even to the authors.

VFW DISTRICT MEET

The 17th District of Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet at the Veterans Memorial Hall in Auburn on Sunday, November 20. It will be a joint meeting with the Ladies Auxiliary.

My Place In the Sun

by DOUG BARRETT

My good friend, Mrs. Tillie Smith, ever on the lookout for material for your columnist, ran across an item of interest to old timers here in the Oakland Trib's Knave page. Seems that 94-year-old twin sisters celebrated their birthday recently. Seems, too, they are nieces of the late Miss Lizzie Danforth, who taught in the elementary school at Truckee for 30 years, which is quite a record for here or anywhere. Her monument stands between the Community Church and parsonage. It's the little house which was my first civilian married home. It was built by the community for Miss Danforth on land donated by the church with the proviso that it would revert to the church when Miss Danforth left. When you come to think of it, it's a lot more sensible memorial than a lot of folks have. In this house-hungry town, a place of habitation is really something to remember.

County Sheriff's Posse Making Ready For Winter Rescue Work

NEVADA CITY—Over 100 skiers, airplane pilots and horsemen comprising Sheriff Richard Hoskins' three unit county posse are being organized in anticipation of snow rescues this winter in the rugged and storm swept eastern part of the county.

Sheriff Hoskins has conferred recently with William Curran and Edward Boehm of Truckee who head the ski patrol division of the posse and George Ender of Grass Valley, head of the air arm.

The ski and air divisions will be composed of 20 men each while approximately 60 trained horsemen will be ready for action. A feature of the ski unit is a dog team and sled driven by Lloyd Van Sickle of Truckee Hilltop Lodge, national dog racing driver champion.

Hoskins says all units will be equipped with first aid equipment and walkie-talkie radios with an operating range of 15 to 25 miles.

Records of the recent years, according to the sheriff, show an increasing number of stranded motorists, lost skier, snowbound prospectors, injured hikers and occasional aircraft forced down or wrecked in the mountain areas of the county.

The three unit group, organized two years ago, is expected to reach a maximum of effectiveness this coming winter.

Businesses

In 1876 America had 427,000 independent commercial and industrial enterprises which equaled one for each 91 persons. In 1947 America had 2,280,000 businesses, or one for each 63 people. So in spite of our big businesses, we have a larger number of small businesses even in proportion to our population.

State Division Ready for Snow Surveys

SACRAMENTO —(W.N.S.)—The state division of water resources is getting ready for winter. Already, according to a report made to the governor, the division has prepared equipment and cabins throughout the Sierra Nevada in anticipation of the snowfall. The division said that the snow survey work this year is being supervised by Fred Strauss, who succeeds the late Fred Paget, senior hydraulic engineer.

Results of the snow surveys are used in computing the water supplies for the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys for the ensuing year.

ALICE WATERS IS SPRATT'S BRIDE IN RENO RITES

Miss Alice Waters became the bride of William Spratt at a nuptial service performed by Rev. Mark Pike in the First Methodist Church at Reno on Thursday, October 20.

The bride chose a winter white suit with blending accessories for the wedding and wore a corsage of roses. Her sister, Miss Gertrude Waters, who was her attendant, wore a blue dress, white accessories and corsage. Herbert Copeland was best man.

Following the rites, Mr. and Mrs. George Waters, parents of the bride, gave a family dinner for the couple.

Mrs. Spratt was born and reared in Truckee, attending grammar and high schools here. More recently she has been employed at Bud's Fountain.

Spratt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Spratt Sr. of Kansas City, Kansas, and has also made his home at Hume, Missouri where he attended schools before serving four years in the U.S. Army. He arrived here a year ago and is employed as a telegrapher for the Southern Pacific Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Spratt plan to make their home here and have been receiving the felicitations of their friends since their marriage.

Attends Meeting—

Rev. Oscar Swenson, pastor of the local Community Church, on Tuesday attended an all-day session at Sacramento for church leaders. Three bishops of the Methodist Church and other national leaders were speakers.

Women Ball Players

The lower arm of a girl slants away from the body at a slightly lower angle than in the case of a boy. That is the only physical difference that could have any effect on throwing, and its tendency should be to cause women to throw overhand. They are more apt to graze the hips with an underhand throw.

Crop Dusting Work Is Theme of Subscriber

Mrs. Ralph Friedrich (nee Carole Brock) writes that she enjoys reading the Sierra Sun and that she plans to visit here for a vacation this year.

She reported that their business of air-borne crop dusting in Tulare County has increased to four airplane dusters and one sprayer this season. George Baldwin, partner of Friedrich, had a narrow escape when the airplane caught fire above Tulare recently when it hit a pole line and came down without injury to the plane or pilot in ten inches of water in a field, which put out the blaze.

Former Local Woman Celebrates 86th Year

On October 11 Mrs. Clara B. Nelson was surprised at a birthday party on her 86th birthday anniversary. Friends and family gathered at the Ben Tonini home in Morro Bay where she now resides to congratulate her and shower her with lovely gifts, among them large bouquets of carnations and chrysanthemums.

Guests enjoyed the presentation of a birthday cake baked by Mrs. Tonini, the honoree's daughter. The cake was decorated with candles to form the figures "86". The lighted candles were effectively blown out by Mrs. Nelson's great grandson Franklin Steve Cox, 2½ years old.

Mrs. Nelson, who, with the Tonini's, made her home in Truckee for years before going to the coast, looks forward to more birthdays as pleasant and well-remembered as the recent one.
